

DESTROYER BURGER

SUMMER 2025!

Satirical fast food simulator in the art style reminiscent of Jack Kirby and Steve Ditko, ripe with references and cameos.

DESTROY YOUR DAY & KEEP THE BOSS HAPPY

- Assemble and serve orders
- Balance speed with maintaining ostensible food quality and customer satisfaction
- Manage the toll on your mental health with perks and minigames
- Cartoonish art style with unique NPCs
- Secret endings

Money can be exchanged for goods and services. You have none. You fill the application to the only place that'll have you, your local burger joint. Earn funds, spend that dough - the basis of a healthy economy. You'll manage. How hard can it be? It's not like you're saving the world or anything...?

PREPARE FOR LAUGHS, SHOTS FIRED IN (ALMOST) ALL DIRECTIONS

- Late-stage capitalism
- Dictators (yes, including the one you're thinking of)
- Work
- The human experience
- Life, the universe of everything

Do you like fast food? Do you like high-octane stressful environments? If so, DESTROYER BURGER is the right pick for you! Now hurry up, my fries are getting cold.
